DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

This notice explains your rights and our obligations with respect to personal information we hold. This is necessary due to the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR), which came into force on 25 May 2018.

The personal details which you supply to us and which we store on our database may be used:

- a) To send you information relating to our activities (such as newsletters and briefing papers)
- b) For statistical analysis to help us build a profile of our supporters

We will never disclose any of your personal information to a third party unless we are legally required to do so.

All such information as we hold is stored on a password protected database administered solely by ourselves.

We are legally obliged to provide you with all the information we hold about you if you so request.

You are entitled to request further information from us on how we use and store your data.

You may withdraw your consent for us to continue holding your data at any time. In this case we will remove your information from our records as soon as possible and you will hear no more from us.

In order to withdraw your consent to our holding your details, please contact Migration Watch UK at 55 Tufton St, London, SW1P 3QL or by email at admin@migrationwatchuk.org
